Status of Regional Recreation Area Prompts Planning Group Curiosity

An answer whether the county intends to develop a large regional recreation center in west Torrance will be asked by the Planning Commission.

Suggestion for the recreational site to serve Torrance and the beach cities, was made some time ago by Supervisor Burton W. Chase.

The commission intends to find out present intentions of the county in order to rule on an application for a zone change in order to build 417 homes.

The request to rezone the area bounded by Henrietta st., Torrance and Del Amo blvds., and the city limits, was made by the Dominguez Estates Co.

A second hearing will be held by the commission June 18.

In other actions, the planners gave a favorable recommendation to the city council on a zone change for the Howard annexation, on its own motion.

The 15-acre tract on Crenshaw blvd., north of 248th st., was rezoned to R-1 when it was joined to the city earlier this year. The commission wants to zone it for

Install Student Body Officers

Student body officers for fall 1958 were installed at a special assembly in the auditorium, May 27 at Torrance High School. ASB President Len Ehlers presided. A feature highlighting the assembly was the presentation of underclass awards in special areas. John L. Swafford, attendance supervisor at Torrance High School, presented certificates of attendance to seven underclassmen in recognition of excellent attendance. The majority had perfect attendance. Certificates of attendance were granted to Bill Armstrong, Milton Bowden, Bill Brockmeier, Bob Church, George Dorman, Gerald Sherburne and Norma Spall.

Miss Anne Timon, THS art teacher, presented Gary Rice, sophomore student, with his honorable mention writing award from scholastic magazines.

Gary's award was won in national competition.

Judith Rayner was given recognition and a check for $15 as first place winner in the National Humane Poster contest. Grace Connert, THS freshman, received her certificate of merit for her art work in the national scholastic art awards.

Gerald Ronan, sponsor of the United Nations Essay contest at Torrance High School, presented certificates of merit to Jay Rovenstein and Robin Thomas. Student body officers for the fall term were introduced to the student body by Gordon Johnston, student activities director.

This group was Vic Masaki, student body president; Diana Cook, vice president; Betty Baker, commissioner of records; Mary Blount, commissioner of finance; Judy Ahrendt, commissioner of pep; Loretta Robinson, commissioner of activities; Stewart Gonta, commissioner of athletics; Carol Johnson, commissioner of publicity; Jo Anne Hesser, commissioner of group control; Gerry Day, court judge;

Leonard Lifton, assistant principal of Torrance High School, installed the newly elected officers and charged them to continue to uphold student body standards.

SHOAFF PROMOTED

Even Shoaff, 21, son of Mrs. Edward Smith, 17575 Yukon ave., recently was promoted to private first class in Germany where he is a truck driver in the 396th Transportation Co.

Retiring student body officers received student council pins signifying the conclusion of their term of service to Torrance High School.

Victor Masaki, incoming student body president, received the THS student gavel from Len Ehlers, retiring president. Victor's first order of business as president was to dismiss the assembly.
